Opening of Southern League.

Atlanta, April 7.—Finishing touches will be put on the clubs of the Southern Association of basebal clubs during the next few days preparatory to the opening of the twelfth season of the present agganization on Thursday, April 11. The season opens with games in the four largest cities on the circuit—Chattanooga at Atlanta; Montgonery at Birmingham; Nashvillo at Memphis, and Mobile at New Orleans—and reports from all the clubs Indicate that the season will start off with an unusual rush.

For the first time in the history of the league the double umpire system will be used. Last year's staff has been strengthened by the addition of two new men—Breitenstein, formerly a pitcher for New Orleans, and O'Toole, formerly with the New York State Liengue.

The season will start with several

The season will start with several The season will start with several clubs under new management. In Atlanta Charley Hemphil, of the New York Americans, succeeds Otto Jordan, who was sold several days ago to Chattauooga. At Mobile Mike Fulna, formerly a Southern League member, but recently scout for the New York Nationals, has succeeded Charlie Swaeina. The others are under the same management.

Opening in Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 7.—Cleveland and Detroit will open the 1912 Amer-lean League season locally next Thurs-day.

New Conditions for Fans. Cincinnati, April 7.—Local patrons of baseball will see several new conditions here on Thursday, when the Chicago team opens the National League season in this city.

A new grand stand that is said to compare Eavorably with any structure of its kind in America will welcome them, while the team will be headed by a new manager, Hank O'Day, erstwhile umpire, in that organization.

Few new faces wil be found in the opening game. Probably Humphries or Suggs will pitch, while McLean will catch.

A New Book by the Author of MARY CARY

O all prisoners in Lonely Land! Here's the way out-the way to happiness! For you, then, is this story of one prisoner who found his liberty. How? Suddenly, like a fragrant southern breeze, he felt the presence of Another. Her joyousness filled the air with song, Like clear pools, the natures of the children reflected her sunshine, and sparkled till he, too, caught the infection. Thus led, he left Lonely Land behind forever, and came out into the sunshine of Mary Caryland. There is a marvelous childlike Mary Cary in this new storytwo children really, who say their prayers sometimes in French, and-
